

The Signing of Memorandum of Understanding Between
Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace, Cambodia
And
China Institute for International Studies

On 3rd December, 2015, H.E. Ambassador Pou Sothirak, Executive Director of the Cambodian Institute for Cooperation and Peace and Mr. Yan Yi, Secretary General of China Institute for International Studies in Beijing, China signed an MOU in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

The Signing were presided over by HRH Samdech Norodom Sirivudh, Chairman of the Board of Directors of CICP, H.E. Mrs. Pok Marina, Member of Board of Directors on CICP, Mr. Pou Sovachana, Deputy Director of CICP and Ms. Neth Chantha, Deputy Director of CICP.

The purpose of the MOU is to furthering mutually beneficial cooperation and exchange of information and opinions on topics relevant to international relations, foreign policy, global and regional security and international political, economic and cultural developments. CICP and CIIS will maintain an active exchange of information about their activities and facilitate the exchange of their monographs, research papers, and other pertinent printed and electronically published material on topics relevant to the issues of scientific and mutual interest. Both sides will endeavor to organize conferences, round-tables, symposia, panels and discussions, brainstorming sessions and seminars that could be held alternately in China and Cambodia.

